- 7.1.5. UNSW MedSoc general elections must be held in Second Session, prior to fifth year members leaving on their elective term, when all years are not on holiday:
- 7.1.6. The newly elected office bearers will take the role of observers following elections and until their term begins on the 1st of January the following year

7.2. Returning Officer

- 7.2.1. The Council shall appoint a Returning Officer at the Council Meeting in the calendar month of July.
- 7.2.2. Any Ordinary member may be appointed as Returning Officer.
- 7.2.3. The Returning Officer may not be a candidate for any UNSW MedSoc elected positions in the elections over which they preside.
- 7.2.4. The Returning Officer is responsible for coordinating the election process , according to processes stipulated by this Constitution and its Regulations & By-Laws.
- 7.2.5. The Returning Officer will be the final arbiter of the elections for which they are responsible.

7.3. Eligibility to Participate in Elections

- 7.3.1. Only Ordinary Members may stand for, and vote in, elections of UNSW MedSoc, subject to other provisions of the Constitution and the Regulations & By-Laws of the Association.

8. Section Eight: Dissolution

8.1. Conditions of dissolution

- 8.1.1. Dissolution of the Association will occur after the following conditions have been met:
 - 8.1.1.1. an Extraordinary General Meeting is petitioned as is set out in clause 5.3.1;
 - 8.1.1.2. all members and the Arc will be notified by email and given the reasons for the proposed dissolution;
 - 8.1.1.3. quorum for the meeting to dissolve the Association shall be twenty (20) Ordinary Members;

- 8.1.1.3.1. Wherein members of the Executive do not count towards reaching quorum
 - 8.1.1.4. after the petitioning body has stated its case any opposition must be given the opportunity to reply, with at least ten minutes set aside for this purpose; and
 - 8.1.1.5. a vote is taken and the motion to dissolve lapses if opposed by fifteen (15) or more Ordinary Members of the Association.
 - 8.1.2. No other business may be conducted at the meeting to dissolve the Association.
 - 8.1.3. If the motion to dissolve is carried, the Arc must be notified within ten (10) academic days.
 - 8.1.4. Dissolution of the Association will also occur if:
 - 8.1.4.1. the Association has been financially and administratively inactive for a period of eighteen (18) months; and
 - 8.1.4.2. Arc gives twenty (20) academic days' notice in an official Arc Clubs publication and attempts to contact the last known president in writing before the Association.
 - 8.2. Distribution of assets
 - 8.2.1. On dissolution of the Association, the Association is not to distribute assets to members. All assets and the satisfaction of debts and liabilities are to be transferred to an organisation with similar goals or objectives which is not carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members. This organisation may be nominated at the dissolution meeting of the Association. If this procedure is not followed, the Faculty will facilitate the dissolution and manage the allocation of funds.

9. Section Nine: Procedure at General Meetings

- 9.1. UNSW MedSoc shall have standing orders
 - 9.1.1. These orders shall apply to all Council Meetings of UNSW MedSoc, to its General Meetings and to any other Meeting where they are specifically adopted.
 - 9.1.2. A vote passing by absolute majority is defined as one that has received support of more than 50 percent (%) of Council Members present at the Council Meeting
- 9.2. Suspension of Standing Orders
 - 9.2.1. Standing Orders are automatically invoked at the commencement of any session.
 - 9.2.2. Suspension of any or all Standing Orders shall require a two-thirds majority of Members with voting rights.
 - 9.2.3. A motion to suspend Standing Orders shall be accorded status as a Procedural Motion.
- 9.3. Adjournment of Meeting

- 9.3.1. Adjournment is normally at the discretion of the Chair who shall bear in mind the wishes of the Members.
- 9.3.2. Any Member may move “that the Meeting be adjourned”. This shall be a Procedural Motion requiring an absolute majority.
- 9.3.3. 12.4. Chair
- 9.3.4. The Council shall normally be Chaired by the President or Secretary.
- 9.3.5. The Chair shall be responsible for the conduct of the Meeting and shall rule on all points of order and relevancy. The Chair shall have absolute discretion in those matters. 1
- 9.3.6. The Chair has no moving or seconding rights and shall not normally enter into a debate.
- 9.3.7. A ruling of the Chair may be challenged by any Member. This shall be a Procedural Motion “that the ruling of the Chair be dissented from”. This Procedural Motion shall require a simple majority.
- 9.3.8. A Chair may be deposed by a Procedural Motion “that a new Chair be sought”, requiring an absolute majority.
- 9.4. Debate
 - 9.4.1. Except in exceptional circumstances, and at the absolute discretion of the Chair, a motion or a report must be tabled before debate is undertaken on any subject.
 - 9.4.2. The Chair shall, in the exercise of power to conduct the Meeting, bear in mind:
 - 9.4.2.1. The order in which Members have indicated their wish to speak.
 - 9.4.2.2. The desirability of allowing those who have not previously contributed to the debate the right to do so at any early stage.
 - 9.4.3. Any Member other than the Proposer may second a motion. There can be no discussion on a proposed motion until it is seconded, but the Proposer may introduce the motion, which shall then lapse if it lacks a Secunder.
 - 9.4.4. If a motion not be seconded, or be defeated subsequent to debate and voting, it shall not be re-introduced at that same Meeting unless there be a Procedural Motion “that the motion be recommitted”. This shall require an absolute majority.
 - 9.4.5. No motion may be withdrawn without the consent of both the Proposer and the Secunder. If only the Proposer withdraws, the Secunder shall become the Proposer of the motion and another Secunder shall be sought. If only the Secunder withdraws, another Secunder shall be sought.
- 9.5. Direct Negatives:
 - 9.5.1. When a motion has been moved and seconded the Chair shall call for a “Direct Negative” to speak against the motion.
- 9.6. The order of speaking to a motion is as follows:

- 9.6.1. The Mover,
- 9.6.2. The Secunder,
- 9.6.3. Direct Negative (if any),
- 9.6.4. Speeches from the floor (in the order received by the Chair),
- 9.6.5. Rights of reply from the Direct Negative, Secunder and Mover in that order
- 9.7. Any Member may move an amendment to a motion.
- 9.8. In the event of a Member moving an amendment the Chair shall:
 - 9.8.1. ask the Proposer and Secunder of the motion if they are prepared to accept the amendment;
 - 9.8.2. in the event of either the Proposer or Secunder being unwilling to accept the amendment, allow the Proposer of the amendment the Right of Speech and then call for a Secunder.
 - 9.8.3. If the Mover and the Secunder of the original motion are prepared to accept the amendment, the amendment is automatically incorporated into the original motion and they become the Mover and Secunder of the new substantive motion.
 - 9.8.4. Where the Chair permits debate of an amendment he or she should clearly indicate that the amendment and not the original motion is under discussion. The Chair should ensure that the debate at any time refers to only one motion.
 - 9.8.5. When the debate of an amendment has been concluded the Chair may allow further debate on the original motion;
 - 9.8.5.1. open a new debate on a further amendment; or
 - 9.8.5.2. close debate.
- 9.9. During the course of a debate a Member or the Chair may foreshadow new motions which they or he or she intend to introduce later.
- 9.10. The Chair may at his or her discretion limit debate in any or all of the following ways:
 - 9.10.1. imposition of a three (3) minute time limit for each Speaker;
 - 9.10.2. imposition of a requirement that debate continue in an alternative fashion with alternating Speakers for and against the motion, and that debate cease when either argument lapses
 - 9.10.3. imposition of a requirement that speeches from the floor are limited to one per Member per motion.
 - 9.10.4. The Chair may close debate at any time at his or her discretion.
 - 9.10.5. Any Member may move that the debate be closed at any time. This shall be a Procedural Motion “that the motion be put”, and shall require an absolute majority.
 - 9.10.6. On the closure of the debate the Chair shall read the amendments, if any, in the order in which they were introduced. At the conclusion of reading each amendment he or she shall give the Mover and Seconded of the amendment in question the right to speak to their amendment. Immediately on completion of these speeches the amendment shall be put to the vote. The Chair shall then read the next amendment and so on until all amendments are voted on.

9.10.7. Immediately on conclusion of voting on amendments the Chair shall read the substantive motion. The Direct Negative, Seconded and Mover may reserve the right of reply in that order. The motion shall then be put to vote, without further discussion.

9.10.8. Once a motion has been passed, it becomes a resolution.

9.10.9. A motion is passed by an absolute majority of council.

9.11. Procedural Motions

9.11.1. Procedural Motions as defined below shall take precedence over all terms of address to the Chair apart from Point of Orders, but shall not carry the right of interrupting the current Speaker.

9.11.2. In the event of Procedural Motion being proposed, the Chair shall immediately ask for a Seconded to the motion and, in the event of the motion being seconded, shall immediately put the Procedural Motion to vote without debate.

9.11.3. Where a Procedural Motion is carried it shall be put into effect immediately, except as given in right of reply

9.11.4. The following shall constitute Procedural Motions requiring an absolute majority of voting Members:

9.11.4.1. That Standing Orders be suspended.

9.11.4.2. That the Meeting be adjourned.

9.11.4.3. That the Meeting be closed.

9.11.4.4. That a new Chair be sought.

9.11.4.5. That any non-Members of Council clear the hall.

9.11.4.6. That the motion be recommitted.

9.11.4.7. That the Meeting proceed to the next item of business.

9.11.4.8. That Standing Orders be resumed.

9.11.4.9. That the discussion not be recorded in the minutes.

9.11.4.10. That candidates for election leave the hall.

9.11.4.11. That the Meeting has no confidence in the Chair.

9.11.4.12. That this Meeting form a committee of the whole.

9.11.4.13. That this Meeting move out of the committee of the whole.

9.11.4.14. That the Chair's ruling be dissented from.

9.11.4.15. That the motion be put.

9.11.4.16. That the motion be laid on the table.

9.11.4.17. That the consideration of the motion on the table be postponed.

9.11.4.18. That the Meeting take a straw vote.

- 9.11.5. The following shall constitute Procedural Motions requiring the support of five (5) members in a vote:
 - 9.11.5.1. That the vote be put to a secret ballot.
- 9.12. Point of Order
 - 9.12.1. A Point of Order shall be concerned with the enforcement or interpretation of the Constitution, Regulations and By-Laws or Standing Orders of UNSW MedSoc.
 - 9.12.2. A Point of Order shall take precedence over all the other terms of address to the Chair, and shall require the Chair immediately to allow the Member to make the Point of Order.
 - 9.12.3. The Chair shall immediately rule and act upon any legitimate Point of Order.
 - 9.12.4. In the event of any Member making use of the precedence which is allowed a Point of Order to make statements which are not directly related concern of a Point of Order, he or she shall earn the severe reprimand of the Chair. In the event of a Member being so reprimanded twice during a Meeting, he or she shall personally forfeit the right of precedence accorded to a Point of Order for the remainder of the Meeting.
- 9.13. Point of Information
 - 9.13.1. A Point of Information shall be a question about or a piece of factual information addressed to the current Speaker or to the Meeting at large.
 - 9.13.2. When a Point of Information is indicated to the Chair while a Member is exercising his or her Right of Speech, the Chair may, at his or her discretion, interrupt the Speaker to allow the Point of Information or may allow the Speaker to finish that contribution to the debate, whereupon he or she must take the Point of Information before any further Speaker.
 - 9.13.3. Where a Point of Information is in the nature of a question, the right of immediate reply may be granted at the discretion of the Chair.
- 9.14. Censure Motion
 - 9.14.1. A motion of censure may be brought against any member in council.
 - 9.14.2. The person being censured shall be notified in writing at least 7 days before the set meeting of the censure. A copy of the letter containing reasons for censure shall be made available to the secretary.
 - 9.14.3. A censure motion may be moved on the grounds of conduct in violation of The University of New South Wales Medical Society Bullying and Harassment Policy.
 - 9.14.4. A censure motion shall be passed by an absolute majority
 - 9.14.5. If passed, the individual will be banned from attending, directly contributing and voting at council meetings

- 9.14.6. If the individual is a member of council, the MedSoc Executive retains the right to terminate the individual's position on council.
- 9.14.7. Standing Orders may be changed at a Council or general meeting by a vote of an absolute majority.
- 9.14.8. It is the duty of the Human Resources Director to ensure a copy of Standing Orders is circulated to all elected office bearers at the beginning of the year and following any change to Standing Orders.
